CHAMPAGNE

NV Agrapart ‘Terroirs’ Blanc de Blancs Grand Cru 475
Avize, Côte des Blancs, France

Pascal Agrapart is one of Champagne’s most respected growers, known for meticulous farming and precision winemaking. This 100% Grand Cru cuvée comes from old vines in Avize, Cramant, Oger, and Oiry, capturing the chalky soul of the Côte des Blancs. Mineral, focused, and elegant, with citrus pith and fresh stone fruit

NV Jérôme Prevost ‘Les Béguines’ La Closerie. 752
Gueux, Montagne de Reims, France

Jérôme Prévost is one of our favourite grower-producers, farming organically and working his vines by horse to preserve soil vitality. Les Béguines is Pinot Meunier-led : textured, expressive, and deep. Ripe orchard fruit, toasted brioche, and a long, saline finish

WHITE

2023 JJ Prüm Wehlener Sonnenuhr Spätlese Riesling 380
Mosel, Germany

The steep, slate-rich Sonnenuhr vineyard has a unique ability to ripen grapes slowly while preserving brilliant acidity. Harvested late and entirely by hand, this Spätlese shows pristine notes of white peach, citrus blossom, lime zest, and wet stone. Silky and precise - A wine of grace and longevity.

2022 Thibaud Boudignon ‘A Françoise’ Chenin Blanc 375
Anjou, Loire Valley, France

Boudignon is one of the Loire Valley’s most exciting winemakers, bringing experience from Charlopin in Gevrey-Chambertin, Château Lafite in Bordeaux, and the iconic biodynamic Cullen estate in Western Australia, before founding his own domaine in Savennières. He farms organically, harvests by hand, and crafts Chenin Blanc of rare precision and energy. Hommage à Françoise, named after his mother, is textured and vibrant, with white florals, quince, chalky minerality, and a saline finish.

WHITE

- 2021 Domaine Larue ‘Sous le Puits’ 749
Puligny-Montrachet 1er Cru, Burgundy France

This vineyard sits at the top of the hill of Puligny-Montrachet, where Domaine Larue excels in producing crystalline yet complex wines. Lemon zest and white flowers, layered with subtle flinty minerality, delicate toasted almond and oak-driven spices. .

- 2020 Domaine Cordier ‘Menetrières’ 550
Pouilly-Fuissé 1er Cru, Burgundy, France

From a steep, south-facing Premier Cru site, this wine marries richness with precision. Expect white peach, roasted hazelnut, and warm honeycomb, supported by flinty minerality and fresh citrus. This wine shows the richness and structure of a Premier Cru white Burgundy without the price tag of the Côte de Beaune.

RED

- 2018 Benjamin Leroux ‘Les Champeaux’ 715
Gevrey Chambertin 1er Cru, Burgundy, France

From the cooler northern end of Gevrey, Les Champeaux shows Leroux’s trademark precision and elegance. Dark cherry, rose petal, crushed herbs, and wet stone unfold over fine tannins and fresh acidity. Pure class from one of Burgundy’s most gifted hands.

- 2017 Henri Boillot ‘Fremiets’ 749
Volnay 1er Cru, Burgundy, France

Domaine Boillot is known for expressive, terroir-driven wines with precision and depth. Fremiets is a Premier Cru on the border of Pommard, lending this Volnay both elegance and structure. The 2017 shows aromas of wild cherry, rose petal, and forest floor. On the palate, it’s silky yet focused, with fine tannins and layers of red fruit, spice, and mineral tension. A graceful, age-worthy Pinot Noir from one of the Côte de Beaune’s most refined sites.

2025 Alkina 'Fractures' Grenache 290
 Barossa Valley, SA

A blend of Old vine Grenache with 50% from a small patch of very hard, bony schist, with the remainder from two smaller blocks introducing just a little more of the clay influence or the area. All hand-picked and naturally fermented. Fresh red fruit and soaring floral aromas wrapped around a graphite core. Cool fruit character and fresh natural acidity keep this wine dancing. Shows excellent tension and linear drive with firm tannin structure, the benchmark of fresh Australian Grenache.

2016 Giacomo Fenocchio 'Bussia Reserva' 985
 Barolo, Piedmont, Italy

A rare release from a historic cru in one of Barolo's greatest-ever vintages. Fenocchio is a benchmark traditionalist—long macerations, wild ferments, and years in large oak, with zero modern influence. The result is a wine of purity, depth and character: dried cherry, rose, tar, and tobacco layered over firm, classical tannins. Historic cru, benchmark vintage, from one of Barolo's great maestros.

2022 Giacomo Fenocchio 'Cannubi' 710
 Barolo, Piedmont, Italy

Cannubi's Tortonian soil of marl and sand give this wine its signature grace and effortless elegance. Think Wild Strawberries, Violets, Aniseed, Cherry, pithy Orange and subtle earthiness. Vibrant acidity and grip to remind you of what you love about young Nebbiolo. Wonderfully complex with bright red fruits and subtle spices flowing with clarity and length. 40-day indigenous yeast fermentation and maceration. 36 months in large Slavonian oak casks

2021 Le Potazzine Brunello di Montalcino 965
 Tuscany ITA

This Brunello di Montalcino is a refined expression of Le Potazzine's traditional philosophy, pure Sangiovese from high altitude vineyards, patiently vinified, and carefully matured to highlight elegance, balance and site expression. Hand harvested late, hand sorted and spontaneous native yeast fermentation for up to 42 days without temperature control. Maceration in open wooden vats and then aged in large Slavonian oak casks. Cherry, Violets, Lavendar, Liquorice and Tobacco. Full bodied, yet weightless, fresh and sharply defined with incredible structural clarity. An absolute masterpiece.

| 2019 | Château Lafleur "Les Perrières" Pommerol
Bordeaux, France | 799 |
| From the iconic Guinaudeau family of Château Lafleur, one of Pomerol's most elite estates, this vintage is equal part Merlot and Cabernet Franc. This is a masterclass in tension and pedigree: wild violets, dark plum, truffles, crushed graphite, fine cedar, and wet stone. The palate is deep, structured, and mineral-driven, with immense ageing potential. | | |
| 2017 | Travis Earth "808" Mourvèdre
Barossa Valley, SA | 750 |
| A unicorn 100% Mourvèdre from Barossa, dry-grown, made with minimal intervention by the legendary Travis Earth (ex-Rockford). Dark plum, blackberry, roasted game, cracked pepper, ironstone, and dried wildflowers. The palate is earthy and savoury with sinewy tannins and a long, umami finish. A wine that hums with quiet power and natural depth. | | |
| 2013 | Torbreck Run Rig, Barossa Valley, SA | 982 |
| A legend of the Barossa. This iconic Shiraz, with a dash of Viognier, is powerful yet polished. Dark berries, black olive, liquorice, and exotic spice wrapped in silky tannins. A rare release with over a decade of age, showing both intensity and grace. | | |
